West Sussex
Music

West Sussex Music offers lessons on a range of instruments including: strings, brass, woodwind, guitar, percussion, keyboard and voice. Classes take place in and out of school hours.

Most children start lessons in small groups of 3 or more pupils. For more advanced learners (and all piano pupils), or those with additional learning needs, individual lessons are sometimes available.

All teaching staff are qualified and experienced and work hard to bring the joy of music to their students.

Assistance with the costs of music education to support students in financial need is available. For more information on how your child can learn to play an instrument, call 01403 286330 or visit www.westsussexmusic.co.uk
